The Michigan Public Service Commission (Commission) will hold a public hearing to consider The Detroit Edison Company's (Detroit Edison) March 31, 1999 application to recover $14 million from its customers for implementation costs incurred from January 1, 1998 through March 31, 1999 for its customer choice (also known as open access or direct access) program. This program is designed to allow customers the option to choose suppliers other than Detroit Edison for their electricity source. The Commission will also consider Detroit Edison's proposed true-up mechanism to address policy decisions regarding the recovery of stranded costs.

The Commission has selected this case for participation in its Electronic Filings Pilot. Therefore, all filings in this case, including petitions to intervene, shall be made by both paper submission and electronic format. The proof of service shall indicate service upon Detroit Edison's attorney, Mr. Bruce Maters, at The Detroit Edison Company, 2000 Second Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

A member of the public who wishes to make a statement of position without becoming a party to the case, may participate by filing an appearance. To file the appearance, you must attend the hearing and advise the presiding administrative law judge of your wish to make a statement of position.
