7 JUDGE STUMP: We're on the record in the
8 matter of the application of Detroit Edison to recover
9 implementation costs for the period ended December 31,
10 2000, Case No. U-12892.

11 This is the time that was scheduled for
12 cross-examination in this matter.

13 Could I have the appearances, please.

15 behalf of the Detroit Edison, your Honor.

16 MR. ERICKSON: Donald E. Erickson

19 MS. BARONE: Patricia S. Barone,
20 Assistant Attorney General, appearing on behalf of the

22 JUDGE STUMP: Thank you.

23 Mr. Christinidis, do you want to proceed?

24 MR. CHRISTINIDIS: Yes, your Honor.

25 The parties have agreed to bind in the

1 testimony of all the witnesses in this case and we waive
2 cross-examination. And Detroit Edison has one of those
3 witnesses and we're prepared to describe to you what that
4 testimony and the two exhibits we have consists of and go
5 forward, your Honor.

6 JUDGE STUMP: All right.

7 MR. CHRISTINIDIS: Our testimony consists
8 of the Qualifications and Direct Testimony of a Joseph A.
9 McCormick which consists of a cover sheet and eight pages.

10 Mr. McCormick also sponsored two
11 exhibits, a JAM-1 which has been marked as A-1 and a JAM-2
12 which has been marked as A-2.

13 And, your Honor, we would move to bind in
14 that testimony as well as admit the two exhibits, A-1 and 15 A-2.

16 JUDGE STUMP: All right. The testimony

6 Your Honor, I also talked with Mr. Strong
7 who represents ABATE which is a party. He didn't plan to 8 be here today.

9 Both he and I have no objection to
10 binding in the testimony.

11 JUDGE STUMP: All right. Good.

12 Is there anything else then for today?

13 MR. CHRISTINIDIS: No, your Honor. Other
14 than to note that I believe the initial brief is due
15 October 12th and the parties hope to work towards a
