Re: MPSC Case No. U-14899

Dear Ms. Kunkle:

McLeodUSA does not offer local exchange service to new residential customers as of April 2, 2006 in the state of Michigan. Accordingly, McLeodUSA did not respond to the Michigan Public Service Commission ("MPSC") Case No. U-14899.

The MPSC opened a docket, Case No. U-14899, examining whether the LECs are compliant by offering Primary Basic Local Exchange Service ("PBLES") to residential customers in the state of Michigan. In this docket, the MPSC is requesting the LECs (1) provide evidence of steps taken to make PBLES available; (2) identify the number of requests for PBLES; and (3) documentation as to the customers that are currently receiving PBLES.

As background, consistent with our tariff filing, 2006-07, McLeodUSA ceased offering residential services to new customers in the state of Michigan effective April 2, 2006, consistent with our tariff filing, 2006-07. All of our residential products, including the PBLES product, were grandfathered at that time.
