Case No. U-14961

NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE
OF RESIDENTIAL LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICE

NOW COMES XO Communications Services, Inc. by and through its legal counsel, Fraser Trebilcock Davis & Dunlap, P.C., and for its notice states:

1. XO Communications Services, Inc. ("XO") is a Delaware corporation.
2. In Case No. U-14376, the Commission granted XO a license to provide local exchange service in all of the local exchanges within the service territories of AT&T Michigan, Verizon North Inc. and Verizon North Systems.
3. Pursuant to Section 313 of the Michigan Telecommunications Act, XO files this notice with the Commission to discontinue its residential basic local exchange service offerings in the local exchanges it serves in the State of Michigan. (MCL 484.2313.) XO will continue to provide local exchange and other telecommunication services to business customers.
4. XO has filed with the Commission tariff offerings for residential local exchange service, including primary basic local exchange service.
5. Currently, no customers are taking residential service under any of these tariff offerings.
6. Pursuant to Section 313, XO will discontinue offering its residential local exchange services in Michigan within thirty (30) days after the publication of the attached notice and withdraw all of its residential tariff offerings.

7. The withdrawal of the residential tariffs will have no impact on any customers since XO has no residential local exchange customers.

8. Further, one or more other providers currently offer residential local exchange service, including primary basic local exchange service, in each of the local exchanges served by XO. These other providers include the incumbent local exchange carrier for each of these exchanges, which are AT&T Michigan, Verizon North Inc. or Verizon North Systems.

Respectfully submitted,

XO COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES, INC.
